SAGE OF TISHOMINGO WILL NOT
RUN FOR CONGRESS; PRE-
PARES TO MOVE TO S.
AMERICA.

By News' Special Service

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 7.—William H. Murray, the sage of Tishomingo, familiarly known as "Alfalfa Bill," spent Sunday and Monday in Oklahoma City interviewing and contracting with prospective settlers who are to join the "Murray Colony" in Bolivia. Between one hundred twenty-five and one hundred fifty colonists are to form the first quota of settlers and at present it is planned that these shall leave an American port about the first of January, next.

Mr. Murray spent several months in South America last year, sailing from New Orleans in May and returning to the states in September. The result of the trip was the acquiring from the Bolivian government of a concession of more than half a million acres of land upon which the Murray Colony is to be established. Mr. Murray has issued a prospectus and also prepared a constitution and by-laws for the government of the colony. The constitution provides that settlers shall deport themselves in accordance with the ideals of citizenship of the United States, observe the laws of the republic of Bolivia and the Golden Rule.

Mr. Murray some time ago announced the denial of the report that he is to become a candidate for congress from the Fourth district to succeed Congressman McKeown and said that he is not an aspirant to any office. This also set at rest spasmic rumors that had cropped out from time to time for several months that Murray was likely to hurl his hat into the ring as a candidate for the democratic nomination for United States senator, for which Senator Gore, Congressman Ferris and Attorney General Freeling are now contestants.

Mr. Murray expects to put in the time intervening between the present and the date to be set for the sailing of his colonists in interview and contracting with prospective settlers; contracting for machinery for mills, industries and other essentials of a colony and is very enthusiastic over the prospects of rapid development of his plans.

Great War Soldier Colonies of Canada Expected to Merge

By The Associated Press

VANCOUVER, B. C., Jan. 7.—Official survey of the activities of the returned service men who have taken up homesteads in British Columbia during the past year, has caused provincial officials to predict that the various soldier colonies established in 1919 will be merged into one great colony, directed by soldiers who fought in the Great War.

Success in British Columbia's soldier colonies has attracted attention throughout the British Empire. The only serious problem which has arisen in the province is the heavy influx of returned soldiers from other provinces. It has been estimated that several thousand returned veterans, who enlisted in other parts of the Dominion, are seeking to become residents of British Columbia.

Records of the Soldier Settlement Board show that 5,000 soldiers have decided to take up land and that 2,500 are actually on homesteads. Various soldier settlements have sprung up, the leading one being at Camp Merville, on Vancouver Island, and Camp Lister, near Creston. About 10,000 acres near Prince George also is to be colonized.

In the soldier colonies, no one but service men and their families reside. All of the officers, even representatives in the provincial parliament, are men who fought. Some weeks ago German and Austrian colonists made vigorous efforts to settle in a fruit region, adjacent to one of the smaller colonies. They were "informally deported" despite their protests. The government did not take any action, as the "deportation," while rather vigorous, was bloodless.

THOUSANDS KILLED IN MEXICAN SHOCK

FURTHER REPORTS FROM SAT-
URDAY NIGHT'S EARTHQUAKE
IN MEXICO REVEAL LOSS OF MANY LIVES.

By The Associated Press

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 7.—Hundreds and possibly thousands of lives were lost as the result of the earthquake which shook Vera Cruz Saturday night. So widespread was the damage done, and so wild are some of the sections that suffered from it, that it is probable that the number of casualties will never be known.

Private dispatches received from Vera Cruz and Palpa, state that one thousand persons lost their lives at Coutzlan. The reports which are said at both cities to be reliable, confirmed the information given out last night by military headquarters that thirty lives were lost at Teocelo where three churches and forty houses were destroyed.

One of the most tragic features of the earthquake was the engulfing of the entire village of Calcahuaco, which formerly nestled in the slopes of the mountains. Its two hundred inhabitants were mostly families of rebel leaders of their followers operating in the gulf region. Natives from that vicinity said there was nothing left of the town except a pit filled with debris which they were unable to even approach.

Cosautlan, a village of 2,500 residents, was left with only two buildings. An unaccounted number of victims are still beneath the ruins.

There were three slight shocks yesterday according to information given out in the afternoon at the conservatory at Tocabaya, a suburb of Mexico City.

Travelers returning here from Vera Cruz say that home streams were dried up as a result of the shock, and it is feared that many mills which rely on water power will be compelled to close.

Several oil mills near Texpan have been spouting petroleum since the earthquake.

GOVERNMENT AFTER RUSSIAN SOVIET

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE IS-SUES A WARRANT FOR THE SELF STYLED SOVIET AMBASSADOR.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—A warrant for the arrest and deportation of Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, self-styled ambassador of the Russian soviet government, has been ordered executed by the department of justice. Martens, regarded, officials say, as the real leader of the communist party in the United States, was said to be in Washington. His arrest was expected soon.

Determination of the government to take Martens into custody was definitely made after all evidence which had a bearing on activities of the Russian soviet bureau in New York had been assembled by Assistant Attorney General Garvan. While officials would not disclose the nature of the evidence, they said some of it promised to be sensational.

Martens came to Washington nearly a week ago from New York and with his secretary and other associates has taken a suite of rooms at a local hotel.

ARRANGEMENTS HAVE BEEN MADE TO FIGHT AT TIJUANA,
MEXICO, IN BATTLE OF FIFTEEN ROUNDS.

By The Associated Press

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 7.—"Tijuana, Mexico, will get the Dempsey-Carpentier fight," said Jack Kerns, manager for the world's champion, when advised today by the Associated Press of George Carpentier's conditional acceptance of the offer made by Promoter Coffroth.

Kerns, Dempsey and Coffroth said they favored July 4 as the fight date and all expressed satisfaction with the European champion's acceptance of the offer. They said they would agree to Carpentier's suggestion on limiting the fight to 15 rounds.

"The fifteen round limit is OK with me," Kerns said. "Personally I do not believe the fight will last longer than one round. Six rounds would suit Dempsey and me just as well as fifteen."

It is stated that Hoffman and Ragland served together in the Spanish-American war and that Ragland has had charge of a farm on the South Canadian owned by Hoffman.

Since the arrest Sunday of Jim Goodrich and Leonard Surraut on suspicion of complicity in the murder of Ragland there have been no additional developments in the case. The officers are still running down every available clew and hope to clear up the matter ultimately.

MEXICAN OFFICER KILLS AN AMERICAN

AMERICAN CONSUL REPORTS
MURDER OF 20 AMERICANS
IN TAMPIO DISTRICT
SINCE 1917.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Gabriel Porter, an American citizen, in the employ of the Penn-Mex Company, was shot and killed by a Mexican federal officer at Tuxpan on December 21, according to advices received by the state department today from the American consul at Tampico.

The consul immediately was ordered to report further information and if the circumstances warranted to urge the local authorities in the Tampico district to arrest and punish the guilty persons.

This makes a total of twenty Americans killed in the Tampico district by Mexicans since April 7, 1917. Eighteen of them were employed by American oil companies. Yesterday the consul at Tampico reported the murder of F. J. Roney and Earl Boles, oil men employed in the Tampico fields. The state department immediately instructed the embassy at Mexico City to urge the Mexican government to take prompt steps to bring the guilty to justice and similar action by the department in the case of Porter was expected when the consul had reported additional information.

POLITICAL POT NOW SIMMERING

TWELVE BIG PARTY LEADERS WILL TAKE ACTIVE PART IN JACKSON DAY DINNER
TOMORROW.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Twelve of the leading figures of the democratic party, including most of those prominently mentioned for the presidential nomination, are on the list of speakers made public today for the Jackson day dinner to be held here Thursday night.

A message from President Wilson will be read first at the banquet and a speech will be made by the following:

William Jennings Bryan, Secretary Daniels, Attorney General Palmer, Governor Cox of Ohio, James W. Gerard, former ambassador to Germany; Champ Clark of Missouri, former speaker of the house; Governor Cornwell, West Virginia; Senators Hitchcock, Nebraska; Pomerene, Ohio; Underwood, Alabama; Owen of Oklahoma, and Peter Oleson, associate member of the national committee from Minnesota.

Bryan and Wilson in Spotlight.
The banquet, incidental to the quadrennial meeting of the national committee to choose a time and place for the national convention, is expected to provide a vehicle for those in the running for the presidential nomination to place their views before the party leaders and the country.

"Greatest interest among arriving committee members manifestly centered today in the president's message of greeting and in the pronouncements to be made by Mr. Bryan. Characterized as 'an important word' by White House officials, the nature of Mr. Wilson's message is being carefully guarded. Speculation revolves about what he may say on a third term and on the peace treaty as a campaign issue.

Guesses about Mr. Bryan's address touch on these same subjects. Many of the party leaders expecting him to declare his stand on the treaty and to put himself definitely into the running for the nomination. In the past few weeks his friends have been very active in his behalf and they expect the banquet to give the opportunity for him to again assume a conspicuous place in the party councils.

League May Be Issue.
Mr. Bryan has been quoted as urging, at a recent meeting here with several democratic senators, that the treaty be ratified promptly with compromising reservations, and in some quarters it is believed he may reiterate that stand Thursday night. There are committee men who believe that the president on the other hand, may ask in his message that the party go before the country on a platform for unreserved ratification. The possibilities of the situation that might thus be developed were widely and eagerly discussed today by those who had arrived for the big party get-together.

Of the six cities asking for the convention, Kansas City was the first to begin active work among the committeemen, a group of boosters opening headquarters today at a hotel. Chicago and San Francisco are expected to get into the race actively tomorrow, and Cleveland, Cincinnati, and Indianapolis also will be represented when the selection is made Thursday. The three last mentioned, however, are not expected to make extensive campaigns.

AMOREGEN, Holland, Tuesday, Jan. 6.—Allied demands for the extradition of former emperor William, of Germany, in which it is known America will not participate, is expected to take place at a meeting at The Hague sometime about January 15. Recent dispatches have stated that Count Hohenloern might surrender rather than embarrass the Netherlands government, but it is authoritatively reported that he will rely on the protection of Holland and her refusal to honor the allied demands.

REBOLD ACCEPTS FAIR PRICE COM.

WIRES GOV. ROBERTSON THAT
ATTORNEY GENERAL PALMER
OFFERED PLACE AND HE ACCEPTED.

By News' Special Service

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 6.—John H. Rebold of Okmulgee has accepted the appointment as fair price commissioner of Oklahoma. In a telegram to Governor Robertson, received yesterday, Mr. Rebold said that he had been tendered the appointment by Attorney General Palmer and had accepted. Howard A. Figg, national price commissioner, and, in reality successor to Herbert Hoover, food commissioner during the period of the war, spent the holidays with his parents in Oklahoma City and an effort was made at that time to agree upon a state commissioner.

Early in the past summer Governor Robertson first called together all of the county attorneys of the state for a conference intended to bring about a means of combatting the profiteer evil in Oklahoma. Later the state council of defense and county councils were revised and with them fair price committees in each county. The progress of the effort to combat profiteering and unfair profits has been problematical, but since the federal administration took a hand and rejuvenated the food commission and price fixing, the situation has been more hopeful.

In Oklahoma City the municipal commissioners have endeavored to curb rent profiteers and have made some progress, although the ordinance under which prosecutions are to be made is new and practically untried. One landlord is now confronted with half a dozen or more allegations of profiteering and the result of his prosecution is awaited with unusual interest.

The organization of the work under the state fair price commissioner may await the return of Governor Robertson who is en route to Washington. Whether Commissioner Rebold will make his headquarters in Okmulgee or whether the administration of the commission from Attorney General Palmer will be conducted from the capitol was not known yesterday.

Commissioner Rebold, a wealthy oil operator, has been active in every public welfare work in his community and in the state. He took an active part in all of the war activities and recently has thrown his shoulder to the wheel in the ranks of the Owen for President Club. He is a member of the state executive committee in the Owen organization and prominently identified with the campaign to finance Owen's candidacy.

Vast Treasures of Gold and Silver Lie Buried in Chihuahua

By The Associated Press

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, Jan. 7.—Vast treasures of silver and gold, stolen by bandits over a period of many years, are cached in the mountains of Chihuahua, Mexico, and in the remote and wild sections of the Mexican states of Durango, Potosi and Zacatecas, according to American mining men who have been investigating operation of foreign-owned mines in bandit-ridden sections of the southern republic.

Among the peons rumors run of buried treasure, stored in Chihuahua and Durango mountains by the bandit, Francisco Villa, rivaling the riches Cortez found among the people when the Spaniards conquered Mexico.

MOTHERS OF TEXAS, PREPARE

When a girl becomes a woman, when a woman passes through the changes of middle life, are the three periods of life when health and strength are most needed to withstand the pain and distress often caused by severe organic disturbances. Many women in Texas would testify just as do the following:

HOUSTON, TEXAS.—"When I was a young girl I suffered from irregularity and pain. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription relieved me of all pain and regulated me so that I was completely restored to health. Since I married, whenever I have needed a special tonic I have taken 'Favorite Prescription' and have been amply repaid for the comfort and strength it has given me."—MRS. M. FREEMAN, 414 Marie Street.

WACO, TEXAS.—"It is a pleasure to me to recommend a medicine that has been of such great benefit to me as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was while raising my family. I have taken this 'Prescription' as a tonic during expectancy and I know it helped me in every way. It is an ideal medicine for the mother to be."—MRS. BEULAH OWENS, 313 North 4th Street.

GALVESTON, TEXAS.—"When I was quite a young girl I had a terribly nervous spell. My stomach was affected so that I could not sleep at night, and I could not sleep at night. My doctor advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription (sold by druggists), and before half the bottle had been taken I lost all the abnormal appetite and was able to rest well at night. I have never had such a condition since that time so can honestly say that the 'Favorite Prescription' cured me of my nervous ailment."—MRS. ELLEN LASWELL, 1614 19th Street.

CATTLE STRONG TO QUARTER—HIGHER, SHEEP STEADY—HOGS LOWER

Light receipts at all the principal western markets brought out better demand for fat cattle today and prices were strong to 25 cents higher, mostly 15 to 25 cents up.

Shippers took medium and light weight hogs at steady prices, early but heavy grades were 25 to 50 cents lower to packers, top $14.75. Sheep and lambs were steady, top lambs sold at $20.00.

Today's Receipts: 13,000 hogs, 9000 sheep, compared with 12,000 cattle, 11,000 hogs, and 11,000 sheep, a week ago and 9100 cattle, 12,900 hogs and 2230 sheep a year ago.

Beef Cattle. Trade in beef cattle which has been dull for some time past showed material improvement today. Prices were mostly 15 to 25 cents higher, trade was active, and a close clearance was reported early. The bulk of the steers sold at $11.00 to $12.50, a few at $13.00 to $13.25. Prime grades were lacking. "Canter" and cutter cows were steady. Good to choice fat cows were 15 cents higher and sold mostly at $9.00 to $10.50. Bulls and veal calves were strong. There was considerable shipping demand for all classes of killing cattle.

Stockers and Feeders. Inquiry for stockers and feeders improved with fat cattle. Choice and medium grades were 15 to 25 cents higher and common to plain kinds were steady. Inquiry from grasing sections is increasing, and from now on pasturemen will buy freely. Feeders good to choice are quoted at $10.50 to $12.50; fair to good $9.50 to $10.50, stockers choice $10.00 to $10.75, fair to good $8.50 to $9.75, common $7.50 to $8.50.

Hogs. Hog market opened steady to ship pers but on reported declines in Chicago, trade here weakened and late sales were 25 to 50 cents lower. The top price was $14.75, and bulk of sales $14.25 to $14.50. Shippers at more eastern markets are paying premium prices for heavily sorted loads, and straight sales are showing less than a normal margin over river prices. The bulk of hogs in Chicago sold at more than a dollar spread, while here the bulk was within a 25 cent range.

Sheep and Lambs. Trade in sheep and lambs opened slowly at weak prices, but later became active and fully steady. Both native and western fed lambs sold up to $20.00, and the bulk brought $19.25 up. Fat sheep were scarce. Ewes are quoted at $11.50 to $12.85 and yearlings $15.50 to $17.50. There is active demand for feeding lambs at $16.00 to $17.50. Horses and Mules.

Trade in horses and mules is entering another week of activity. Receipts are liberal, but buyers are here from practically all localities. Steady prices were quoted on the opening.

FIRE LOSSES LOWEST RECORDED IN STATE

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 18.—Fire losses in Oklahoma last year were less than in any year since 1911, when the first record of fires was kept and less than half the amount of loss in 1918, according to the report of John Connolly, state fire marshal, who completed yesterday his compilation of the year's figures. There were 1,103 fires in 1919 causing a total loss of $1,987,026 as against 1,722 in 1918 with total loss of $4,287,736. Only seven months are recorded in 1911, during which there were 690 fires and losses of $1,422,010.

Credit for the reduction in fire loss is given to the active campaign of education in fire prevention carried on during the last year by the fire marshal. Fire drills have been instituted in many schools and grown persons as well as children have had their attention called to needless fire risks which can be avoided easily.

Oklahoma City, being the largest city naturally led in fire losses with a total of $301,212. Other cities in order are Tulsa $250,379. Okmulgee $122,162. McAlester $103,040. Enid $93,444. Muskogee had losses of only $21,876. Loss in small towns and rural districts is estimated at $239,456.

Of the total of 1,103 fires reported the cause of 243 is unknown. Defective flues and stovepipes caused 125, oil, gas or gasoline explosions 113, defective furnaces, stoves and fireplaces ninety-six, adjoining fires seventy-three, defective electrical appliances sixty-two.

Children playing with fire or matches caused fifty-four fires, carelessness of smokers of pipes, cigars and cigarettes fifty-six, spontaneous combustion and friction thirty-eight, lightning eight, burning mites in henhouse three, fire works five, moving picture films five, thawing frozen pipes three and supposed incendiaries twenty-three.

FOR INCREASED PRO-
DUCTION IN 1920.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—An increased production in cotton this year is out of the question, according to Dr. Bradford Knapp, who recently resigned as chief of the office of extension work in the south with the department of agriculture to become dean of the college of agriculture, university of Arkansas.

"The experiences of 1919 ought to teach southern cotton farmers that they cannot handle, with their present supply of labor, an increased acreage in cotton, the labor is not there," writes Dr. Knapp in one of his last works before leaving the department of agriculture, entitled, "Safe farming in the Southern states in 1920."

"By 'safe farming,'" says Dr. Knapp, "is meant a system which maintains soil fertility, produces the food and feed for the people and the livestock in sufficient quantities to ensure a comfortable surplus and produces cotton as a strictly cash crop."

"Is 'safe farming' thus defined needed in the south in 1920?" asks the department of agriculture. "There are probably those who think not. Cotton is so high—so much higher than it ever was before. The supply is apparently so short—the cotton mills of the world so greatly in need of cotton. Is it not a time—the once in a lifetime—when the farmer can turn his whole energy to cotton and make a 'killing'?" Without specifically asking the question Dr. Knapp answers it. His word to the farmers of the south is that the plan followed the last few years is still good. The only safe plan for farmers, and bankers, is to insist upon a safe farming program.

"Cotton," Dr. Knapp says, "is not actually very high. It is high as compared with prices in former years, not as compared with current prices of other commodities. Before the farmer decides that the high price of cotton will warrant his planting the entire acreage to that crop to the neglect of all else, he says, he had better make a pretty thorough examination of the retail prices of the necessities of life at the place where he must purchase them during the year if he fails to produce them on his own farm."

STOMACH SO BAD SHE HAD LOST ALL HOPE

Suffered agony for 8 years, and then got well in a hurry.

"I suffered from stomach trouble for 8 years—had acute indigestion for 4 years. All that time I have not slept a wink before 2 in the morning, and lived on milk and soup. My stomach was one solid sore."

"Doctors said I had catarrh and neuritis of the stomach, also female trouble for which I needed an operation. I was nothing but a living skeleton and had given up hope."

"Then my husband brought home a bottle of Milk's Emulsion. From the second dose, I began eating, and now after 10 bottles, I eat anything I want. I haven't had a pain in my stomach since the first dose, and my female troubles fast disappearing."—Mattie Cartwright, Tyler, Texas.

The blessed relief which Milk's Emulsion gives in stomach trouble, is one part of its good work. The benefit is not prompt and lasting. It costs nothing to try.

Milk's Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. It helps build flesh and strength, and is a powerful aid in resisting disease. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Truly wonderful for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milk's Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milk's Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.

FEBRUARY TWENTY-SECOND

Next Sunday will be the birthday of George Washington—about the only man in American history whose birthday can be celebrated heartily by all the people. The birthday of practically every other American has been copyrighted by some political party or church or fraternal organization and only Washington, the greatest of all Americans, is left to the homage of the whole people.

Thomas Jefferson is regarded as having been the greatest political philosopher that America has yet given to the world, but the name of Jefferson is so closely associated with the history and traditions of the Democratic party that few followers of other party standards derive much satisfaction from celebrating the day of the great Virginian's birth. It would be as strange to see Republicans observing Jefferson's birthday as it would be to see Democrats celebrating the natal day of Alexander Hamilton.

We have annual celebrations of the day on which Andrew Jackson was born, but who ever heard of anyone but Democrats attending a Jackson Day banquet? The natal day of William McKinley is observed in many parts of the country, but selfish individuals have already converted such celebrations into close communion affairs. Even the birthday of Lincoln—only American who has challenged the preeminence of Washington—has been converted into a day of partisan appeal and partisan memories like the day of Jackson's birth. Millions of people who revere the memory of our martyred president do not attend Lincoln Day celebrations because of the partisan political speeches that invariably are made at those celebrations.

But no party can claim Washington and no selfish interest has ever been able to capitalize his memory. He is the one American belonging to all Americans. His name is rarely heard in political conventions; but by the many million fire-sides of the republic his name is spoken with that reverence due him from the nation whose foundation he laid deep in the perils of war. He is the only man of all ages who cannot be eulogized by comparison.

The offer of Governor Robertson to have several state departments lend sufficient employees to the legislature to do the clerical work of the special session is a most generous one and does credit to the wish of the governor to have the most economical session possible. But we seriously doubt if a single department of the state administration is willing to admit that it has a single employee that it does not need every hour in the day. The same offer was made by Governor Williams four years ago, but when the legislature met it was not able to locate an idle employe in the state capitol. The department heads excel in convincing legislators that they need more employes and more employes all the time and no department head is going to take the risk of being suspected of asking for unnecessary help. Hence, we predict that when the legislature of all the people assembled under the domeless wonder at Oklahoma City next Monday it will not be able to locate a single idle employe. We further predict that many department heads will be waiting to convince the lawmakers that the work of their departments is badly congested and that several additional employes are needed.

Last Tuesday Senator Borah of Idaho delivered a grandiose speech in the senate protesting bitterly against "the murderous peace imposed on Germany" by the Allies, and appealing for more lenient treatment for the beasts of Berlin. The day after that speech was delivered Senator Borah was endorsed as a great American statesman by the Republican State Convention at Oklahoma City. The resolution was adopted unanimously. In all that convention there was not one man who dared or cared to lift his voice in protest against endorsing a plea for leniency towards the most infamous organization of murderers that ever fouled God's earth. Each day it becomes more easy to understand why and how Harrell was elected.

A farmer calling at the Evening News office this morning to get some government garden seed left here for distribution said that he didn't want any of the seed if they are Democratic seed. He said that Democratic vegetables always grow rapidly and look promising till the time comes to use them, when they suddenly split.

The Muskogee convention killed Campbell's "Cat," and it will now have to be killed only eight more times.

INCOME TAX FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW

The changes wrought during 1919 by births, deaths and marriages in many families materially affect the liability of members for Income Tax. Millions of babies have been added to the family circles, each of whom brings an added exemption of $200 on the parent's Income-Tax return.

On the other hand, several millions of boys and girls became self-supporting and they form a new crop of income-tax payers. Also, the grim reaper brought its many sorrows and removed many dependents and many of the bread winners themselves.

Accordingly, it is pointed out by Internal-Revenue officials, there are millions of persons who must this year consider their Income-Tax liability from a new angle. For their new status as of December 31, 1919, governs for the full year.

Widows and widowers who lost their mates during 1919 are especially affected. They must remember that, unless married again before December 31, they are single in the eyes of Income-Tax law. Similarly, those who were divorced or otherwise separated from their wives or husbands must consider themselves as single persons.

But a widow is not required to show on her personal return the income of her husband up to the date of his death; and the same is true in the case of a widower who suffered the loss of his wife during 1919. For the income of deceased persons must be considered separately with respect to requirement to file a return for the deceased by the executor or administrator. And the deceased is entitled to exemption for the full year based upon his status at date of death.

The bride and groom of 1919 must figure up the income of each for the full year and consider it jointly with respect to Income-Tax requirements even though they may not have been acquainted during part of the year. Their status on December 31 joins them for a full year.

The Internal-Revenue Bureau points out that a person's status on December 31 governs two things: First, the requirement to file a return if the single individual had a net income of $1,000 or more, or if the married couple had a net income of $2,000 or more; second, the exemption that may be claimed on any return of net income.

And it is emphasized that the requirement to file a return has no relation to the personal exemption, and that a person can not avoid filing a return merely by the fact that no tax is due.

Twenty-odd years slip from our shoulders as we hear the commoner hallel—once more—as a "Moses". Mossy-whiskered "old timers" are mapping out elaborate programs for the peerless one—programs that would seem to call for at least twenty-five years more of "preparation" on his part, one item being the "dethronement of King Pope". ## OKLAHOMA NOT SO EXTRAVAGANT

APPROPRIATIONS SMALL COMPARED TO OTHER AND CONSIDERABLY OLDER STATES.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 19.—In view of the fact that a special session of the state legislature is called to convene in Oklahoma City Monday, February 23, and in view of the fact that some criticism has been made regarding what they term as "enormous appropriations," made by the state legislature for the purpose of maintenance and support of the state, the following facts and figures are submitted to the people of the state comparing the appropriations made by Oklahoma with many other states in the union. Special attention is called to the fact that Oklahoma is a new state and of the eighteen million dollar appropriations made at the last session of the legislature, seven million dollars of this amount was made for the purpose of making improvements in the way of buildings and equipment for educational and eleemosynary institutions. Oklahoma has been forced to appropriate more than older states, of course, for the reason that these states, many of which are almost a century old, have long before built their state institutions, and of their appropriations only from three to five per cent is necessary for permanent improvements, while Oklahoma, in building her institutions, is forced to spend about forty per cent of her appropriations along this line.

We believe that the following facts and figures bear out the statement that Oklahoma's business is run very economically.

Appropriations by the 1919 legislature for maintenance and support $11,000,000 for permanent improvements in the way of buildings and equipment for educational and eleemosynary institutions $7,000,000, aggregating $18,000,000.

Massachusetts, a state just double the size, appropriates $38,000,000 $35,000,000 of which is for maintenance and support for one year against Oklahoma's $11,000,000 for maintenance and support for two years.

New York appropriates $90,000,000 for maintenance and support for one year against Oklahoma's $11,000,000 for two years, which is about three to one per capita.

New Jersey appropriates $12,000,000 for maintenance and support for one year to Oklahoma's $11,000,000 for two years and is only one-third larger in population and more than one hundred years old.

Likewise Virginia appropriates $24,000,000 for two years against Oklahoma's $11,000,000 for the same period.

Illinois appropriates double the amount per capita as Oklahoma.

Nebraska, with a population one-fourth less than Oklahoma, appropriates $15,000,000 to Oklahoma's $11,000,000 for a two year biennial.

Kansas, approximately the same size as Oklahoma, appropriates $14,000,000 to Oklahoma's $11,000,000.

Oregon, a state of about one-third the population of Oklahoma, appropriates $14,000,000 for maintenance and support against Oklahoma's $11,000,000.

Washington, with only 60 per cent of the population of Oklahoma, appropriates $14,000,000.

The states of Montana, Utah and Idaho, with only one-fourth the population of Oklahoma, appropriates more than one-half as much for maintenance and support as Oklahoma, which makes them spend twice as much per capita as we do.

New Mexico, the only new state, and which has a population of less than one-seventh as that of Oklahoma, appropriates four and one-half million dollars, which is a much larger sum per capita than we spend.

California, a state one-third larger, appropriates $40,000,000 to our $11,000,000.

THRASHING MACHINE CHASES MOUNTAIN GIRL ON DONKEY

At her fourteenth birthday, Mavis Hawn, a Kentucky mountain girl decides that books and not bullets are essential to her life's success. So thinking, she mounts the family donkey and sets out for the lowland school to find the strangest thing she has ever seen—a railroad train, which she thinks is a thrashing machine.

This is one of the unusual situations in "Heart O' the Hills," adapted from the story by John Fox, Jr., in which Mary Pickford will be seen at the Liberty Theatre, commencing today. This is Mary Pickford's third First National attraction, produced in her own studios of which her mother is business manager.

As Mavis Hawn, Mary Pickford is in love with Jason Honeycutt, a mountain boy, who chafes under the cruel treatment of his father and who is unrelentingly jealous of the attentions which Mavis pays to one of the city aristocrats who visits in the mountains.

As time passes Mavis and Jason take separate trails in their searches for education. They finally wind up, however, back at their mountain home to find Jason's father and Mavis' mother leading a cat-and-dog wooed life. Just as Steve Honeycutt is about to murder the Widow Hawn, the most exciting moment of the story arrives.

William Farnum is a Man's Man. William Farnum puts one of the most dramatic and intense fights ever staged into the thrilling ending of the new photoplay, "Wolves of the Night," a fight into which Farnum throws himself with the agility of an athlete and the skill of a champion. As the desperate man, resolved to win back wife, child and fortune, from devilish schemers, he locks himself in an office, attacks three who attempt to coerce him with a pistol, and there, in as stirring an encounter as has ever been pictured, baffles them. This fight, which is just one of the many intense scenes in that compelling photoplay of love and finance, "Wolves of the Night," a William Fox production, showing at the American Theatre today, is one more demonstration of surprises Farnum has up his sleeve. It proves that Farnum, popular, handsome, magnetic though he is, is no mere matinee idol, but a man's man for all his charm, and a man of power into the bargain.

From Wichita, Kansas they went to the 101 Ranch at Billis, Oklahoma, which is owned by Miller Bros. Here they remained a few days and bought a "high school" horse. While in Lancaster, Mo., he was hit by an elephant and knocked down and severely bruised.

He bought two elk, a pair of ostriches, which won first prize in San Francisco. Also a pair of baby lions and one elephant, but was unable to get a baby elephant which he had planned on securing, also an elephant had died with the flu before he was able to secure it.

Honest Bill now has quite a collection of animals at his winter quarters at the Fair grounds and is increasing it all the time.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—The return of the railroads to private ownership March 1, will mean the "placing of private operation on its 'final trial' in the opinion of Herbert Hoover, expressed last night in his inaugural address as president of the American Institute of Mining Engineers. At the same time Mr. Hoover attacked government operation of either railroads or shipping as "experiments in socialism necessitated by the war" to which there were many fundamental objections.

"No scheme of political appointment," Mr. Hoover said, "has ever yet been devised that will replace confidence competition in its selection of ability and character. Both shipping and railroads have today the advantage of a skilled personnel, sifted out of a hard school of competition and even then the government operation of these enterprises is not proving satisfactory. Therefore, the ultimate inefficiency that would arise from the deadening paralysis of bureaucracy has not yet had full opportunity for development. Already we can show that no government under pressure of ever-present political or sectional interests can properly conduct the risks of extension and improvement, or can be free from local pressure to conduct unwarranted services in industrial enterprises."

Turning to the question of shipping, Mr. Hoover said that, while with the railroads government inefficiency could be passed on to the consumer, "on the seas we shall sooner or later find it translated to the national treasury." The speaker asserted that as government officials could not engage in "haggling in fixing rates," they took refuge in rigid regulation and fixed rates.

Associate Justice Bailey said that after a careful examination of the statutes he was of the opinion they did not show an intention on the part of congress to place in the President or in the shipping board the power to sell the vessels.

Application for the injunction was made last Saturday by William R. Hearst and hearings on it were held Monday while the ships were being offered at public auction. The board announced yesterday that it had decided to reject all of the bids received and at the same time asked congress for authority to again offer the ships at public auction.

Chairman Payne of the shipping board announced that an appeal from the temporary injunction order would be filed immediately. Meanwhile he said it was expected that Mr. Hearst would be required to furnish bonds to protect the board against loss by reason of the ships lying idle.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—A temporary injunction to prevent the sale of the 39 former German passenger liners recently offered by the board was granted today by Associate Justice Bailey of the district supreme court.

ROFF, Okla., Feb. 19, 1920.

Last night the members of the Roff Public School faculty met with the school board to discuss the proposition of teachers' salaries for another year. Roff has this year been a little low in salaries, however for next year it is expected that it will be a leader along this line of school work. It is expected that a minimum of $100.00 per month will be paid for grade teachers. Dr. T. A. Hill, clerk of the board, admitted that Roff had been a little lower in salaries this year, but he stated that he expected to use his best efforts to see that the conditions would be remedied before next term. A. J. Crain, member of the school board, stated that the teachers should be paid what their services are worth. Col. John G. James, president of the board, suggested that the superintendent and the teachers make a separate estimate on teachers' salaries and present the same to the board for consideration.

The faculty of the Roff Public Schools will attend the state teachers' association 100 per cent strong. The teachers' expenses will be paid to Oklahoma City by the school board.

Supt. E. O. Davis will attend the national superintendents' meeting which meets in Cleveland, Ohio, from Feb. 23 to 28.

Those who saw Mary Pickford in "Daddy Long Legs," and later in "The Hoodlum," will need no encouragement nor further inducement to come and see Mary in her third and greatest success. It shows the true life of a mountaineer girl and how bravely she meets her various hardships, but in the end is amply rewarded for having endured them.

The American.

Today and tomorrow at the American William Farnum presents "William Farnum, the highest salaried actor on the screen, in 'Wolves of the Night.' This is a play worthy of the star, and a star worthy of the play. A story that carries the spectator into the great Northwest, into the heart of South America, and into the whirlpool of Wall Street. It takes a strong man to 'come back' after he has been insane five years; has been robbed of wife and fortune; and has been the victim of a murder plot. In all this William Farnum plays the part of the hero, Bruce Andrews.

Work In City

To Start Soon

The contracts having been let yesterday for Ada's new waterworks and sewer systems, it is announced today that some of the contractors will begin work next week.

The contracts cover the rebuilding of the water plant at Byrd's Mill, storage tank near the brick plant south of the city, the laying of new mains throughout the city, the reconstruction of the sewage disposal plant, the laying of new and additional sewers and many other improvements of a minor nature.

The work was submitted in sections and the bids resulted in letting the contract to four different contracting firms as follows: Yates & Gallimore, Ada; James E. Nelson & Sons, Chicago; J. S. Terry, Poncha, and J. E. Hanson, Tulsa.

The firms are all reliable contractors and have complied with the usual requirements. Major Benham has finished his work so far as the preliminaries are concerned and left the city this afternoon. He will, of course, be here from time to time as the work progresses to see that it is going as per contract and specifications.

The City Commissioners and the Chamber of Commerce committee have worked in harmony all the way through in the matter of getting the bonds voted, getting the proper plans for the work and for the letting of the contracts. It is certain, too, as it seems now, that the same cordial relations will continue to the end, which means that the people of Ada will get dollar for dollar for all they spend, and that when the job is finished will have one of the best water and sewer systems of any city in this part of the United States.

Major Benham expressed himself as well pleased with the way matters are moving, and have moved, and will now set himself to the task of making up the specifications for the more than one hundred blocks of paving to be constructed here this summer. He has a wonderful vision of the city of Ada and doesn't hesitate to say that we will have a city of twenty-five thousand people within five years unless all signs fail.

With the enormous amount of construction work scheduled here for the summer, which Major Benham predicts will be finished by this time next year, and with the construction of the many brick business houses, residences, etc., already in contemplation for this year—and with the regular summer session of the Normal—it is safe to say that Ada will be a hummer for the next twelve months.

SLEEP SICKNESS APPEARS IN ROME

THOUGHT TO BE THE SAME DISEASE THAT FOLLOWED WAVES OF INFLUENZA IN THE PAST

By the Associated Press

ROME, Feb. 17.—Sleeping sickness or sleeping headache, as the Italian scientists prefer to call the malady which has appeared in Rome and several other Italian cities, is believed by Professor Giuseppe Sanarelli, the distinguished Italian bacteriologist, to be the same as that which followed other waves of influenza. Pope Benedict XIII died from influenza in 1730. The after effects of the epidemic at that time were so baneful that his successor, Benedict XIV waived the fasting of church men during Lent and similar action was taken by Pope Leo XIII in 1890, when there was another wave of influenza, or la grippe.

Professor Sanarelli, who has been studying the disease, says that the best way to avoid sleeping sickness is to keep the powers of resistance up to the highest point, as it seems to attack chiefly persons who are in a rundown condition. He also warns the public not to be unduly alarmed about the disease, and says he is unwilling to concede it is highly communicable or contagious until the actual cause of the malady is determined. And he does not think the germ will be discovered until after extensive experimentation with the brains of monkeys, such an expensive work that it can be carried out only with the aid of the millions of some philanthropic millionaire like John D. Rockefeller.

Professor Sanarelli says because of the sporadic appearance of the disease it is reasonable to assume many persons carry the germs but are immune to the disease until there is some sudden let down in their physical condition which overcomes their power of resistance. As the malady always makes its appearance at the same season as infantile paralysis and cerebro-spinal meningitis, or spotted fever, and as it persists in reappearing occasionally between epidemics, Professor Sanarelli says it is not strange that it is frequently believed to be identical with them. However, he thinks it is quite a distinct disease, as it is confined chiefly to adults and does not leave the serious effects of cerebro-spinal meningitis. The malady has been diagnosed in widely scattered parts of the world in 1917, 1918 and 1919. At least 100 cases were reported from English cities in 1918, but it died out in June. Until this year it had not been reported in Italy since 1889 and 1890, when it appeared in Mantua. Many persons died then after a few days, sometimes even hours, of lethargic sleep which could not be overcome. Bulgaria also had an epidemic at that time, and cases occurred in the United States.

In most cases the illness begins with mental depression, which is followed by sleepiness which develops into complete prostration. Drooping eyelids and frequently a crossing of the eyes occur. Loud talk and even shaking will not arouse patients suffering acutely with the malady, who answer incoherently to all inquiries and fall immediately into sleep again. The face is generally colorless and devoid of expression.

Professor Sanarelli is a member of the faculty of the University of Bologna and was formerly professor of micro-biology and public hygiene at the University of Montevideo. He was also formerly under secretary of state for agriculture in Italy.

THOUSANDS HAVE KIDNEY TROUBLE AND NEVER SUSPECT IT

Applicants for Insurance Often Rejected.

Judging from reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has been very successful in overcoming these conditions. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of success.

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview of the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

Thousands of Women

Owe Their Health To

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—overshadowing indeed is the success of this great medicine. Compared with it, all other medicines for women's ills seem to be experiments. Why is it so successful? Simply because of its sterling worth. For over forty years it has had no equal. Women for two generations have depended upon it with confidence.

Thousands of Their Letters are on our files, which prove these statements to be facts, not mere boasting.

Here Are Two Sample Letters:

Mother and Daughter Helped.
Middleburg, Pa.—"I am glad to state that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did me much good when I was 35 years old. I was run down with female trouble and was not able to do anything, could not walk for a year and could not work. I had treatment from a physician but did not gain. I read in the papers and books about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. The first few bottles gave me relief and I kept on using it until I got better and was able to do my work. The Vegetable Compound also regulated my daughter when she was 15 years old. I can recommend Vegetable Compound as the best medicine I have ever used."—Mrs. W. Yarnes, R. 3, Box 21, Middleburg, Pa.

Wife Is the Woman Who Insists Upon Having
Fall River, Mass.—"Three years ago I gave birth to a little girl and after she was born I did not pick up well. I doctored for two months and my condition remained the same. One day one of your little books was left at my door and my husband suggested that I try a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I started it immediately and I felt better and could eat better after the first bottle, and I continued taking it for some time. Last year I gave birth to a baby boy and had a much easier time as I took the Vegetable Compound for four months before baby came. On getting up I had no pains like I had before, and no dizziness, and in two weeks felt about as well as ever."—Mrs. THOMAS WILKINSON, 363 Columbia Street, Fall River, Mass.

Negligees Odd and Colorful

She who wanders through the shops in search of negligees is sure to be surprised, interested and tempted. Surprise will follow the discovery of the very wide variety of styles there is to choose from. They prove very interesting to the woman who has not experimented with them; she has a chance to see herself in the trousers and coats of the women of the far East, interpreted in silk, satin, georgette and chiffon, the trousers and jackets of Turkey, the kimonos of Japan and coats of China, the long, graceful draperies of the Empire period and styles from every quarter of the globe.

As it happens the slightest and most delicate of sheer fabrics are less fragile than they look. Crepe, georgette and wide net top lace are used for making many negligees, with the georgette in two plain colors and the lace in cream color. A pretty specimen of this particular style of negligee appears in the picture above.

Just as pretty as these colorful and sheer affairs are coats of taffeta in gay colors, more or less long, to be worn over lacy petticoats. They are trimmed with ruchings of ribbon or of frayed taffeta. Very much the same character of negligee appears in very fine cotton crepes from Japan, embroidered in silk floss material matching them in color; they are something between a kimono and a coat. Mandarin coats and silk kimonos, gayly embroidered, hold their place among the luxurious apparel that blooms in the privacy of home.

Speaking of ribbons and laces will naturally lead one to discuss boudoir caps and camisoles. A very handsome specimen of each of these is shown above and they are so well pictured that it will not take long to describe them. The cap is made of chiffon, with puffed crown. A shaped and wired band is extended into two points over the ears.

The camisole of wide lace has a band of light ribbon about the top belted with chiffon gathered into a frill and similar bands over the shoulders. Straps of the ribbon pointed at the ends are applied to the lace, and a narrow beading accommodates the ribbon that draws it up at the waist line.

PALESTINE TO JEWS FOREVER

BEST SENTIMENT OF THE WORLD IS IN SYMPATHY WITH THEIR PLAN FOR A HOMELAND

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—Vincente Blasco Ibanez, author of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" has added his name to the long list of distinguished non-Jews who are enthusiastic for the establishment of a Jewish National Homeland in Palestine.

"Every right thinking man, whether Jew or Gentile, cannot but sympathize with the movement to help the Jews settle in the Holy Land and once more make the Jewish people an independent nation on their own soil," said the distinguished Spanish statesman, a publicist and novelist. "I think there cannot be two opinions on the subject. I am enthusiastic for a Jewish Palestine particularly when I recall what the Jews have accomplished during the long centuries of exile, under the heavy burden of the most terrible persecutions. Now is there anything they will not be able to accomplish in their own country, in the land of their fathers? And that is why many of the best sons of the Jewish people are active in the Zionist movement."

Ibanez told his interviewer that in Spain since its gates were opened once more to Jews in 1858, no one knows any longer who is of Jewish blood and who is not. "There is not a worth while Spaniard but has Jewish blood in his veins" he continued, "And at times it seems to me I am purely of Jewish descent myself."

"There is no anti-semitism in present-day Spain," he said. "Spain realizes the great wrong done the Jews by the exile decree of 1492. Fortunately, we live in a different era now, and Jews occupy the most prominent places in Spain's public life. Naturally, when I say Jews I mean the descendants of the Maranos or secret Jews. There are but few recent immigrants among the Spanish Jews, and they, together with the other have recently founded a League for the Rehabilitation of Spanish Jewry. I, too, belong to this League and many eminent Spaniards, of non-Jewish origin, are members, for they understand how useful the Jews are to the country."

Notice Mrs. Lindsey, field secretary of the foreign board will speak at the Presbyterian church tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 and also tomorrow evening. All interested are urged to be present. A free will offering will be taken up in the evening.

Kendallites Take
First Game From
E. C. N. Pedagog

Coach Schmidt's speed fiends were too fast and too accurate for E. C. Wilson's East Central quintet last evening and took the game by the one-sided score of 41 to 9. This score does not indicate the speed of the game, as the local lads put up a much better exhibition of basketball than one would judge by reading the figures.

The game was fast from the first. The visitors, plainly the best that have been on this floor in many a day, and probably ever, ran away, getting several points before Roach managed to drive one between the bars. The first half ended 29 to 4 in favor of the Presbyterians.

The teachers exhibited more speed and much better defense work in the last half, keeping the score of the visitors to ten points while they themselves were piling up a total of 5.

The Kendall aggregation has not lost a game this season in the state, and indications are that it will take the collegiate championship. This fact makes it more evident that E. C. Wilson has built a nice little team at the Normal this season. The work last evening would have defeated almost any college team in the state. With the score so one-sided in the first half, the East Central boys came back and put up a wonderful fight in the last half.

The game tonight may be a repetition of the last half of last evening's game. If it is, it will be a contest long to be remembered.

For the visitors, Grove was plainly the star. In addition to guarding a perfect game, he shot three field goals. Keck, who played only one half, was little less a star, and Williams at center was a sensation. For the home lads, Roach and Heard were the most brilliant players, while Ingram showed up well.

Lineup
Kendall—F—Roach
Keck—F—Tolliver
Fishney—C—Sherman
Williams—C—Heard
Bacon—G—Ingram
Grove—G—Heard
Lamb for Keck in last half.

Field goals: For Kendall, Keck 5, Fishney 3, Williams 8, Bacon 1, Grove 3. For East Central, Roach 2, Tolliver 1, Ingram 1. Free goals, Keck 1, Roach 1. Referee, Wray.

Legion Dance
Will Be Given
As Advertised

A petition asking the mayor to keep the American Legion from having a dance next Monday night in the city hall was presented to the mayor yesterday afternoon by several of the ministers of Ada. The petition was said to bear the signatures of 100 citizens of the city.

In declining to grant the request of the petitioners the mayor stated that he had promised the hall to the Legion some days ago and that acting on that promise the local post of the Legion had issued considerable advertising stating that the dance would be held in the city hall next Monday night. For that reason he felt that it would be unfair to close the hall to the soldier boys, particularly after they had been to considerable expense in advertising their entertainment.

"KANGAROO" AIRPLANE TO THE SOUTH POLE

By the Associated Press

LONDON, Feb. 18.—The British Expedition to the South Pole which plans to start in July next, will use a "Kangaroo" airplane, formerly a fighting machine, for the final stage of the journey. This plane will be fitted with skis instead of wheels to enable it to land in the snow.

The aircraft will make its actual start from the Great Barrier, and will proceed to the South Pole over the great glacier, and then across known but unnamed mountains.

It is proposed to take a crew of not less than four, in addition to which a sledge containing a tent, shovels, cooking stove and camping equipment and provisions for at least 10 weeks must be carried. These provisions and the sledges necessary in the event of an accident, which might compel the party to return to the base on foot, will weigh approximately 750 pounds.

This weight, together with the necessary fuel for a 1,500 mile flight necessitates a big powerful machine, as the mountains to be flown over are over 12,000 feet above sea level.

The "Kangaroo" was one of the latest fighting bombers designed for the British Air Ministry, and at the time of the armistice was largely used on the anti-submarine patrol service. The machine is a biplane measuring 75 feet from wing-tip to wing-tip, and is fitted with twin engines developing 550 horsepower.

One great trouble to be overcome is the question of cooling or rather heating of the engine, as the temperature which will be experienced is only 12 degrees above zero in summer, and experiments are now being carried out with a view to overcoming the difficulty.

If you wonder why, this is the answer. To give the public a treat and to make sure I sell all my suits. Burk's 2-19.3t

LEGIONAIRES TO BE ENTERTAINED
BY CHIX HOUSE

From Chickasha Express:

Plans have been partially completed which may develop into a series of monthly entertainments given by different business firms of Chickasha to the local post of the American Legion, beginning with the month of February.

The plan is to have a different business firm be host according to its individual tastes for each month in the year. There is to be nothing definitely laid down as to what form of entertainment shall be given. It is said. The amusement might be in the form of a dance, a smoker, a banquet or a prize fight, but it will be left entirely in the hands of the host as to what kind of program will be pursued.

It is pointed out that in having the different business firms of the city act as hosts to the Legion, Chickasha would be showing in a novel and fitting manner appreciation of the services rendered by the Grady county fighting forces during the world war. Such a course would also tend to promote a more friendly spirit between ex-service men and would also bring them into a closer and more binding co-operation with the business men of the city as a whole, promoters of the plan state.

Although a detailed course has not yet been fully mapped out, it is thought that the scheme will take definite form in the next few days. Several fans have expressed a willingness to take the matter up in accordance with the above plan.

Husband Teased
Wife Concerning
Lady Friends

Suit for divorce was filed in district court yesterday by Winnie Fay Fisher by her attorney, R. C. Roland. The defendant is Lee E. Fisher.

Plaintiff alleges that she was married to defendant in Ada on December 28, 1918. That from and after their marriage defendant pursued a course of conduct towards this plaintiff that made life with him unbearable. That he talked about plaintiff and her people and about the way that she had been raised. That he continually teased her about other women and told her of the good times he had with other women. That she was only fifteen years old when she married. That plaintiff was neglected by defendant, who wouldn't go places with plaintiff and never would take her to church. That defendant would not provide a home for plaintiff but took her from one place to another. That finally defendant brought his sister to live with them and that this sister did just about as she pleased.

Wherefore plaintiff prays for divorce and the restoration of her maiden name Winnie Fay Murphy.

Trio Charged
With Disturbing
Peace--Didn't

A dusky trio from Darktown was arraigned before the mayor this morning on a charge of disturbing the peace. The alleged offense was alleged to have been committed at or near an alleged compress in Ada and is said to have taken on the nature of loud, vociferous and indecent language. The mayor decided after hearing the alleged evidence in the case that there was no good and sufficient reason for applying a fine to the defendants and they were consequently discharged. They gave their names as Weston Neal, Laura White and Samuel Foreman.

COLOMBIA PROTESTS
U. S. INFRINGEMENT

By the Associated Press

BUENOS AIRES, Feb. 18.—La Epoca organ of the government party in Argentina, has just published a communication from the Colombian legation giving the text of resolutions adopted by the Senate and House of Representatives of Colombia on November 3 last protesting against the alleged infringement by the United States of Colombia's rights over the Isthmus of Panama. The resolution of the Colombian Senate reads:

"This day being the sixteenth anniversary of the rebellion of Panama, fomented and supported by the government of the United States of America, with manifest infraction of a public treaty, the Senate of the republic interprets public opinion in declaring, once more, that the rights of Colombia over the Isthmus of Panama are imprescriptible, and in protesting, as it does protest, before the civilized world, against the causes which have impeded the use and defense of its rights."

"Colombia re-affirms solemnly today its rights to all and each one of the portions of territory bestowed upon it by its liberators, and, whatever be the answer which time shall bring to the hopes of revindication, that its cause is the cause of justice and civilization, that of the sovereignty and integrity of nations."

"The Senate, in making this protest and these declarations, expresses the wish to see substituted by the action of equity and justice the proceedings which have limited and made nugatory the rights of weak nations."

The resolution of the House, expressing similar sentiments, complains against the failure of the United States Senate to approve the treaty of April 6, 1914, and protests against the proposed celebration of a new pact "quite foreign" to the April 6 convention.

Farm Wages Higher
Last Year Than Any
Time in Our History

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Farm wages were the highest in the history of the United States last year, the department of agriculture announces. For labor hired by the month with board, the average for the country as a whole was $39.82, without board it was $56.29. Harvest wages per day with board reached the top figure of $4.48 in the North Central States west of the Mississippi River. The lowest farm wages are in the South Atlantic States, with the South Central States next lowest. Monthly wages with board were highest in the Western States, including the Mountain and Pacific States, where the average was $62.96 while without board it was $87.12.

Farming operations of 1919 produced crops that had a value at the farm that was 11.8 per cent above 1918, and animal products 9.9 per cent above, but the gain in wages of farm labor was relatively greater. Wages by the month with board increased 14 per cent, without board 15.3 per cent and day wages in harvest, 18.9 per cent.

"These figures indicate," says the department of agriculture, "that the farm laborer is still regaining the ground he lost, relatively, early in the rapid upward movement of prices of farm products after 1915. This wage recovery was evident in 1918 as well as in 1919, but full recovery has not yet been accomplished."

FOCH INSPIRED TO LEAD ARMIES

FRENCH MARSHAL DECLARES THAT HE WAS INSPIRED BY DIVINITY TO LEAD THE ALLIED FORCES.

PARIS, Jan. 1.—In a remarkable interview published here today, Marshal Foch says he was divinely inspired to defeat the Germans and that the allied victory was willed by God.

"When," said Marshal Foch, "in a historic moment a vision is given to a man and when in consequence he finds that this vision has determined movements of enormous importance in a formidable war, I believe that this vision—and I think I had it at the Marne, on the Yser and on March 26—comes from a providential power in the hands of which one is the instrument, and I believe that the victorious decision was sent from on high by a will superior and divine."

In religion Marshal Foch is a devout Catholic.

The allied leader also reveals that from boyhood, when he saw Germany defeat France, he lived for but one purpose, and that was to humble the power that had humbled his country.

All the world knows Marshal Foch as a soldier. The allied statesmen and the Germans, too, have come to know him as no mean diplomat. But how many know him as a philosopher? This is the side of his character which is pictured by his acquaintance, Andre Demari-court, in the Echo de Paris.

"From the age of 17," Foch says, "I dreamed of revenge, after having seen the Germans at Metz. And when a man of ordinary capacity concentrates all of his faculties and all of his abilities upon one end and works without diverging, he ought to be successful. There are, of course, conditions. He ought to be objective and never subjective. I contend he ought not to get lost in passing impressions. Facts alone count, and he ought to devote himself to facts."

"How, then, did I win the war? I did it by smoking my pipe. I mean to say in not getting excited, in reducing everything to its essentials, in avoiding useless emotions, in concentrating all my strength on my job."

"Was this job difficult? Possible it was. Our war was a very curious war. It was a battle of governments. To speak only of ourselves—we had confronting our French republic, with its profound national sense, the Kaiser, a man intelligent, perhaps, but not very intelligent, a bluffer, a man of hasty action, and for that reason a bad judge of his acts."

"Germany, it is true, had a super army and professional soldiers of the first rank, but she lacked a Moltke. He would never have started the war without trying to neutralize Russia and if he would have had to swallow that pill, believe me, he would have conducted the war differently. The Kaiser served us in good stead, for an express train was entrusted to the stage coach driver."

"I am often asked if I really believed the war would be a long one. I know nothing about that. It wasn't my business."

"It is a loss of time, thought and strength to speculate at the expense of the needs of the hour. I have always sought to do my work according to the formula 'sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.'"

When one philosophizes too much on the consequences of the act he thinks he ought to perform one loses his footing, also his strength. "I permitted myself two emotions because they were agents of power. It was necessary to face the idea of defeat and to face the idea of victory."

"Look at what defeat meant—the sacrifices had been bloody, cruel, and more than cruel. They pointed out the superior duty. They ought not to be useless. If we did not succeed, I said to myself, all would go to smash. That couldn't be."

The idea of victory—it had to be at all costs. "Je la Veaux," I wished it. Yes, but that was easily said. To gain it it was necessary to recognize that the war of human beings never changes in essence. It varies only in its tools. I remember that before Arcola the master Napoleon had said, 'I must get out of Verona,' and he had been beaten several times."

"On the Marne I did not forget this advice. I had been beaten and I said to myself, 'I will be beaten four times, or five times if need be, but I will survive.'"

Above everything else stands the will to conquer based upon confidence. But this will is nothing if it does not know how to use the means, and I do not only speak of myself when I say that it is there hangs success or failure of the chief from the intellectual point of view.

The Marshal then goes on to tell how, when he took the leadership, he found soldiers jaded and worn by the weary months of war and how it was necessary to inspire in them the will to win. He says he did this and won.

"And now," says the Marshal, "do not speak to me of glory or the beauty of enthusiasm. They are only words. Guard yourself in France against these expressions. They are useless. They are lost strength. The war is finished. That is one expression that is good but epithets as well as fancy phrases are worth nothing. Nothing survives except acts because acts alone count."

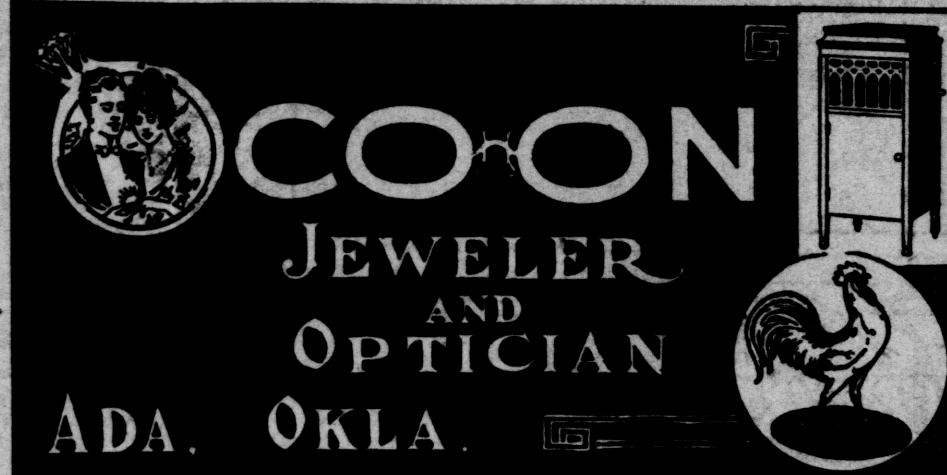

"Here is one that gives me satisfaction. It was the meeting at Reims. That was an act. That act marked the decomposition of the

JUDGE GALBRAITH IN SUPREME COURT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Judge C. A. Galbraith of Ada, attorney for Coal county, appeared before the supreme court yesterday and submitted a motion to dismiss the appeal in the case of Coleman J. Ward by C. A. Greenlee, assignee, vs. the board of county commissioners of Love county.

The court permitted Judge Galbraith to appear in this case as amicus curiae because Coal county which he represents, collected taxes under the same circumstances as the taxes in this case were collected by Love county, and the law that is declared in this case will be equally applicable to Coal county. There is about $25,000 involved in Coal county and approximately the same amount in Love county.
